MARK SCHEME for the March 2015 series

0500 FIRST LANGUAGE ENGLISH

0500/22

Paper 2 (Reading Passages – Extended), maximum raw mark 50

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the March 2015 series for most Cambridge IGCSE® components.

Note: All Examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated. Nonetheless, the content must be clearly related to and derived from the passage.

Question 1

This question tests reading assessment objectives R1 to R3 (15 marks)

R1 demonstrate understanding of explicit meanings

R2 demonstrate understanding of implicit meanings and attitudes

R3 analyse, evaluate and develop facts, ideas and opinions and writing assessment objectives W1 to W4 (5 marks):

W1 articulate experience and express what is thought, felt and imagined

W2 sequence facts, ideas and opinions

W3 use a range of appropriate vocabulary

W4 use register appropriate to audience and context

Imagine you are one of the original prospectors who came to this canyon from far away 150 years ago.

Write a letter home to your husband or wife.

In your letter you should:

- describe the difficulties of the journey
- explain the living and working conditions at the settlement
- explore what the future may hold, depending on whether or not your husband or wife joins you.

Base your letter on what you have read in Passage A. Be careful to use your own words. Address each of the three bullet points.

Begin your letter,

'My Dear, It is some time since I have been able to write to you...'

Write about 250 to 350 words.

Up to 15 marks are available for the content of your answer, and up to 5 marks for the quality of your writing.

General notes:

Candidates should select ideas from the passage (page 3) and develop them relevantly, supporting what they write with details from the passage and judging the appropriate register for the genre, which is a letter to a close member of the family. Look for a clear and balanced response which covers the three areas of the question, is well sequenced, and is in the candidate's own words.

Responses might use the following ideas:

A1: The journey

- WEATHER conditions heat / rains (depending on time of year) det. road partially washed away
- REMOTE from civilisation det. 22km from nearest town to start of mountain dev. letter may take some time to arrive
- LENGTH of journey (duration / time spent on the road) dev. missing home / missed at home / impatient to get to gold
- WAGON(s) and HORSES (overladen, horses fatigued) dev. problems encountered
- ROAD surface still in construction rough-hewn and rocky
- ROUTE narrow, turns sharply det. clinging 9km
- HEIGHT gradient / steep / side of a mountain det. river far below precipice, unstable ground dev. danger of falling, observed accident
- OTHER TRAVELLERS det. numbers, dev. camaraderie / comradeship / enforced co-operation / competition

Development may include judgements which may be positive / negative depending on the attitude of the writer – e.g. tiring / exhausting / arduous, dangerous / challenging, afraid / exhilarated, missing home (separate judgements should be credited but repetition of the same idea should not). Further development may include suggestion of events hinted at in the passage e.g. accidents. These need to be rooted firmly in the text to be credited.

A2: The living / working conditions

- MAKESHIFT accommodation dev. had to move / rebuild e.g. because of flood damage
- SUPPLIES limited / difficult to obtain (will have to be) brought in by pack wagon
- MALE PREDOMINATED handful of women dev. constant arrivals
- WATER / CLIMATE extremes det. susceptible to flooding in winter, parched river beds at other times dev. may be difficult to cultivate / grow food
- LEGAL disputes over claims to land, court actions dev. had to build courthouse, det. thousands in feverish pursuit of gold
- VIOLENCE frequent fights
- PHYSICALLY exhausting work, hard on body det. spasms in back, effects of heat
- MENTALLY tiring / repetitive / needed to be mentally strong det. old before time, disappointed to find nothing dev. prospectors driven to madness

A3: what the future may hold

- GOLD wealth / riches likely to be found or return empty handed
- DREAMS escape from the civilised world / previous life or shattered dreams
- LAND stake out plot as own / likely dispute
- SETTLEMENT prosperous / busy or abandoned / ruined
- PROSPECTORS yet more arriving dev. competition or people abandoning quest
- PLANS stay on / returning/ invite spouse to join them / instruct not to come dev. reasoning

Note 1: For A3, candidates may choose to see the future negatively or positively, or a mixture of the two. Points may be used differently depending on whether or not the letter is inviting or dissuading.

Note 2: Some A1/A2 points might appear in A3 if cast in the future, e.g. that there could be a land dispute, or there are likely to be lots more people arriving. Simple repetition of ideas already used in A1/A2 should not be credited.

Marking Criteria for Question 1

A: CONTENT (EXTENDED TIER)

Use the following table to give a mark out of 15 for Reading.

Band 1: 13–15	The response reveals a thorough reading of the passage. Developed ideas are sustained and well related to the passage. A wide range of ideas is applied. There is supporting detail throughout, which is well integrated into the response, contributing to a strong sense of purpose and approach. All three bullets are well covered. A consistent and convincing voice is used.
Band 2: 10–12	The response demonstrates a competent reading of the passage. A good range of ideas is evident. Some ideas are developed, but the ability to sustain them may not be consistent. There is frequent, helpful supporting detail, contributing to a clear sense of purpose. All three bullets are covered. An appropriate voice is used.
Band 3: 7–9	The passage has been read reasonably well . A range of straightforward ideas is offered. Opportunities for development are rarely taken. Supporting detail is present but there may be some mechanical use of the passage. There is uneven focus on the bullets. The voice is plain.
Band 4: 4–6	There is some evidence of general understanding of the main ideas, although the response may be thin or in places lack focus on the passage or the question. Some brief, straightforward reference to the passage is made. There may be some reliance on lifting from the text. One of the bullets may not be addressed. The voice might be inappropriate.
Band 5: 1–3	The response is either very general , with little reference to the passage, or a reproduction of sections of the original. Content is either insubstantial or unselective. There is little realisation of the need to modify material from the passage.
Band 6: 0	There is little or no relevance to the question or to the passage.

B: QUALITY OF WRITING: STRUCTURE AND ORDER, STYLE OF LANGUAGE (EXTENDED TIER)

Use the following table to give a mark out of 5 for Writing.

Band 1	5	The language of the response sounds convincing and consistently appropriate. Ideas are firmly expressed in a wide range of effective and/or interesting language. Structure and sequence are sound throughout.
Band 2	4	Language is mostly fluent and there is clarity of expression. There is a sufficient range of vocabulary to express ideas with subtlety and precision. The response is mainly well structured and well sequenced.
Band 3	3	Language is clear but comparatively plain and/or factual, expressing little opinion. Ideas are rarely extended, but explanations are adequate. Some sections are quite well sequenced but there may be flaws in structure.
Band 4	2	There may be some awkwardness of expression and some inconsistency of style. Language is too limited to express shades of meaning. There is structural weakness and there may be some copying from the passage.
Band 5	1	Expression and structure lacks clarity. Language is weak and undeveloped. There is very little attempt to explain ideas. There may be frequent copying from the original.
Band 6	0	The response cannot be understood.

Question 2

This question tests Reading Objective R4 (10 marks):

R4 demonstrate understanding of how writers achieve effects

Re-read the descriptions of

(a) the road and its surroundings in paragraph 3, beginning ‘Almost immediately...’

(b) the effect on the writer of panning for gold in paragraph 6, beginning ‘Reason told us...’

Select four powerful words and phrases from each paragraph. Your choices should include imagery. Explain how each word or phrase selected is used effectively in the context.

Write about 200 to 300 words.

Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer.

General notes

This question is marked for the ability to select powerful or unusual words and for an understanding of ways in which the language is effective. Expect responses to provide words (listed in the mark scheme on page 6) that carry connotations additional to general meaning.

Mark holistically for the overall quality of the response, not for the number of words chosen, bearing in mind that there should be a range of choices to demonstrate an understanding of how language works for the higher bands, and that this should include the ability to explain images. It is the quality of the analysis that attracts marks. Do not take marks off for inaccurate statements; simply ignore them.

The following notes are a guide to what good responses might say about the selections. They can make any sensible comment, but only credit those that are relevant to the correct meanings of the words in the context and that have some validity. Alternative acceptable explanations should be credited. Credit comments on effects created by non-vocabulary choices such as grammar/syntax and punctuation devices. They must be additional to comments on vocabulary.

Page 7	Mark Scheme	Syllabus	Paper
	Cambridge IGCSE – March 2015	0500	22

(a) the road and its surroundings in paragraph 3

The overall effect is one of enclosure, violence and danger.

thrown out into the void: launched into space seemed to clang shut behind us (image): imprisonment; metal doors closing forcefully turquoise: jewel-like, tempting, alluring, in contrast to barren landscape / river writhed (image): twisting, snake motion, suggestive of pain / danger frothed: foaming with bubbles because of the force of so much water falling steeply; like an aggressive animal roars echoing (image): extremely loud and reverberating; sound suggests power and danger sheer rock face: perpendicular; impossible to scale; imprisoning loomed over us: towers above and dominates / threatens as if lured into a trap (image): like an animal tricked into capture broken-backed carcass (image): fallen vehicle reminiscent of animal corpse clinging...to the sides of the precipice (image): the road is in danger of losing its grip on the steep cliff

(b) the effect on the writer of panning for gold in paragraph 6

The overall effect is of the power of fantasy, mentally and physically, expressed in heat and water imagery.

succumbed: gave in; has no power to resist to gold fever (image): the desire for gold is like an illness which is caught and leads to hectic, abnormal activity swam before my eyes (image): the reality of the sieve is distorted by visions pulse racing: adrenalin making the heart pump faster, sense of rushing headlong/competition kaleidoscope of fragmented fantasies (image): shifting collection of shapes and colours; fleeting pictures of the possible outcomes of wealth swirled: whirled; like the river water, she is made giddy by the fantasies energy sapping away (image): losing vital life source as a cut plant loses liquid

(throat) rasping drily (image): the literal thirst has metaphorically made her throat raw, death rattle

(hopes) swept away by the current (image): just as a strong river current will completely remove items in the water, her illusions disappear

Only credit comments on stylistic effect where explicitly linked to choices.

Marking Criteria for Question 2

READING: Language analysis:

Use the following table to give a mark out of 10 for Reading.

Band 1	9–10	Wide ranging and closely focused discussion of language with some high quality comments that add associations to words in both parts of the question, and demonstrate the writer’s reasons for using them. Tackles imagery with some precision and imagination. There is clear evidence that the candidate understands how language works.
Band 2	7–8	Explanations are given of appropriately selected words and phrases, and effects are identified in both parts of the question. Images are recognised as such and the response goes some way to explaining them. There is some evidence that the candidate understands how language works.
Band 3	5–6	A satisfactory attempt is made to identify appropriate words and phrases. The response mostly gives meanings of words and any attempt to suggest and explain effects is basic, vague or very general. One half of the question may be better answered than the other.
Band 4	3–4	The response provides a mixture of appropriate choices and words that communicate less well. The response may correctly identify linguistic or literary devices but not explain why they are used. Explanations of meaning may be few, general, slight or only partially effective. They may repeat the language of the original or do not refer to specific words.
Band 5	1–2	The choice of words is insufficient or rarely relevant. Any comments are inappropriate and the response is very thin.
Band 6	0	The response does not relate to the question. Inappropriate words and phrases are chosen or none are selected.

Marking criteria for Question 3(b)

WRITING: Concision, focus and use of own words

Use the following table to give a mark out of 5 for Writing.

Band 1	5	The response is well focused on the passage and the question. All points are expressed clearly, concisely and fluently, and in the candidate's own words (where appropriate) throughout.
Band 2	4	The summary is mostly focused but may have a redundant introduction or conclusion. Most points are made clearly and concisely. Own words (where appropriate) are used consistently.
Band 3	3	There may be occasional loss of focus or clarity. There are some areas of concision. Own words (where appropriate) are used for most of the summary. Responses may be list-like or not well sequenced.
Band 4	2	The summary is sometimes focused. It may lack some clarity. It may include comment, repetition, unnecessarily long explanation or lifted phrases.
Band 5	1	The summary is unfocused or wordy. It may be answered in the wrong form (e.g. narrative, commentary or as notes) or lack clarity. There may be frequent lifting of phrases and sentences.
Band 6	0	Excessive lifting; no focus. The response cannot be understood or consists entirely of the words of the passage.
