Nouns 1

Nouns are the names of things. The word noun comes from the Latin word, Nomen, meaning name.

Common Nouns

Common nouns are the names of things like desk, chair, tent, car, flower, knife. They are not particular things and are not written with a capital letter.

Make a list of twenty nouns - things that you can see in the classroom.

You can start off with book.

Proper Nouns

Proper nouns are the names of particular things - things that are proper to themselves. John is a proper noun. It is the name of a particular boy.

All proper nouns must be written with a capital letter.

All of these are proper nouns:

| days of the week | e.g. Wednesday |
| :--- | :--- |
| months of the year | e.g. August |
| names of people | e.g. John Smith |
| names of cities | e.g. London |
| names of rivers | e.g. Thames |
| names of countries | e.g. England |
| names of seas | e.g. Atlantic Ocean |
| street names | e.g. New Street |

Make a list of forty proper nouns - five names from each category above.
Remember to start each name with a capital letter.

Read through the passage below and underline all the common and proper nouns.

Once there was a boy named Jack. Jack and his mother lived in a little cottage. They were very poor people. At last they had nothing left to live on but one cow. One day Jack's mother told Jack to take the cow to the market to sell. At the market Jack met a man. The man wanted to buy the cow. The man offered Jack a handful of beans for the cow. The man told Jack that the beans were magic beans. Jack wanted the magic beans. He gave the cow to the man for the handful of beans.

Adjectives

An adjective is a word which describes, or tells us more about a noun.

For example: The stupid boy sold a good cow for a handful of magic beans.
Copy out and complete the following sentences. Choose the most suitable adjective from the list below.

| good | open | old | poor | useless |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |
| angry | stupid | hungry | magic | silly |

1. When Jack came home with the beans his. $\qquad$ mother was very angry.
2. "You $\qquad$ boy," his mother said to him.
3. "You sold a $\qquad$ cow for a handful of beans," she shouted angrily.
4. "But they are $\qquad$ beans," said Jack.
5. "They are $\qquad$ dried up old beans," said his mother.
6. "That's what I think of your $\qquad$ beans," she said.

8. The $\qquad$ mother burst into tears.
9. "Now we will starve to death," said the $\qquad$ woman.
10. The $\qquad$ boy crept silently up the stairs to bed.

Read through the passage below and underline all the adjectives.

The next morning a huge beanstalk had grown from the magic beans. Jack climbed to the top of the giant beanstalk. At the top of the giant beanstalk was a magic land. Jack found a great castle filled with golden treasure. The castle belonged to a wicked ogre. Jack stole the ogre's golden treasure. The evil ogre chased Jack back to the giant beanstalk. The frightened boy climbed quickly down the beanstalk. Jack got a sharp axe and cut down the giant beanstalk. The wicked ogre fell. His neck was broken as he hit the hard ground. Jack and his old mother lived happily on the ogre's golden treasure.

Pronouns

A pronoun is a word that stands in place of a noun.

For example: Mary was very tired. She fell asleep in class.

In the example above the pronoun she stands in place of the noun Mary.
Personal pronouns are the most commonly used. The personal pronouns are:
I you
he she it we they

Copy out and complete the following sentences putting in the personal pronouns.

1. My name is Mary Smith and $\qquad$ am twelve years old.

Now make up seven sentences of your own - one sentence for each of the personal pronouns:
I you he she it we they

Verbs 1

Many verbs are doing words. They describe actions. Some verbs are being words.
For example: The spider ate the fly. Spiders and flies are both insects.
The most commonly used verb in English is the verb to be. Here is the present tense of the verb to be:
Iam
You are
He is $\quad$ She is $\quad \mathrm{It}$ is
We are
You are
They are

Copy out and complete the following sentences putting in the missing verbs.

Make up ten sentences of your own using the present tense of the verb to be.

Underline all the verbs in the following passage.

My name is Sam Smith. I am twelve years old. My brother is John Smith. He is fourteen years old. We are both at the same school. Our school is Alders Wood High School. It is the biggest school in our area. We are very happy here. It is a very good school. Our parents are very pleased that we are at this school.

You should find eleven verbs.

Adverbs

Adverbs tell us more about verbs. Many adverbs tell us how something was done.

For example: The boy ran home quickly.

The adverb quickly tells us how the boy ran (ran is a verb). Many adverbs end in ly.

Copy out and complete the following sentences. Choose the most suitable adverb from the list below.

| swiftly | quietly | cheerfully | noisily | peacefully |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |
| fiercely | shyly | suddenly | angrily | brightly |

Write sentences describing how the couples danced, how the pianist played the piano and how the violinist fiddled.

Make a series of funny drawings showing people doing things. Then write a sentence for each of your pictures describing how they are behaving. You will be using VERBS and ADVERBS.

Syllables ... Syll - a - bles

When we say a word slowly we can hear how it may be broken into smaller parts called syllables.

Some words have only one syllable.
For example: bat, cat, den, pin, run, sun, zip etc.

Make a list of ten words of one syllable with a in the middle.
Make a list of ten words of one syllable with $\mathbf{e}$ in the middle.
Make a list of ten words of one syllable with $\mathbf{i}$ in the middle.

Make a list of ten words of one syllable with $\mathbf{o}$ in the middle.
Make a list of ten words of one syllable with $\mathbf{u}$ in the middle.

Don't forget to put a comma after each of the words in your list.

Some words have two syllables.
For example: apple, button, custard, dinner, earwig, feather etc.
Make a list of words with two syllables. Try to find a word for each letter of the alphabet.

Here are the 26 letters of the alphabet:

abcdefghijklmnopqrstuvwxyz

Some words have three syllables.
For example: antelope, banana, catapult, difficult, earlier, fantastic etc.
Say the words slowly and you will hear how the words break into three syllables.
make a list of twenty words with three syllables.
Write a sentence for each of the words in your list.

Suffixes

A suffix is a group of letters which we add to the end of a word to make a new word.
For example: From the word build we get the two words builder and building.
Look carefully at the list of words below. Add er or ing to make new words.

1. farm
2. hunt
3. sing
4. help
5. read
6. sleep
7. clean
8. climb
9. garden
10.paint
11.teach
10. play

Remember that when you add ing to words that end in e you miss out the final e.

Add ing to the following words:

| skate | make | take | write | bake | dance |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |
| shake | ache | like | poke | rake | wake |
| Write a sentence for each of the new words you have made. |  |  |  |  |  |

Homophones 1

Homophones are words that sound alike but have different spellings and different meanings.

For example: I can see the sea.

Copy out and complete the sentences choosing the correct word from the list below.

| peel/peal | rode/road | hole/whole |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| son/sun | not/knot | piece/peace |

10.The car was parked at the side of the $\qquad$ .
11."Do $\qquad$ ride your bicycle on the road," said dad.
12.The laces were tied in a tight $\qquad$ . .

Write a sentence for each of the following words.

| plane/plain | steel/steal | waste/waist |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| board/bored | brake/break | hear/here |

Remember to start each sentence with a capital letter.

Here, there and everywhere

The words there and where contain the word here. These words usually relate to place.

For example: "Where shall I put these plants, here or there?" asked the gardener.

Copy out the sentences below putting in the missing words.

1. $\qquad$ can I go to eat my packed lunch?" asked the new pupil.
2. "Come $\qquad$ at once," said Mary's mother.

10.". $\qquad$ does it hurt?" asked the doctor.
11."The pain is $\qquad$ in my stomach," said the patient.
12." $\qquad$ is too much work to do here," grumbled the boy.

Write twelve sentences of your own using the words

here there where everywhere

Remember to start each sentence with a capital letter.
If you use direct speech remember to put speech marks around the words spoken. The examples above will help you.

Verbs 2

Verbs are written in different tenses. These tell us about when something happens.
For example: Yesterday Ihad egg and chips for lunch. (past tense)
Today Iam having sausage and chips. (present tense)
Tomorrow I will have fish and chips. (future tense)
Read the following sentences carefully. Say if the verb is past, present or future tense.

1. Last year we went to Spain for our holidays.
2. The school is very quiet today.
3. I will get some sweets on the way home.
4. The dog chased the cat up the tree.
5. Iam quite small for my age.
6. After school I will change out of my school uniform.
7. Last term in English we read Treasure Island.
8. Treasure Island is a great book about pirates and treasure $\qquad$
9. Next year we will go to Italy for our holidays. $\qquad$
10.The baby threw his rattle out of the pram.
11.The baby is throwing his rattle out all the time.
12.The baby will throw his rattle out again.
$\qquad$
$\qquad$
$\qquad$

Write five sentences telling about something you did in the past.
Write five sentences telling about things you are doing today or do every day.

Write five sentences telling about things you plan to do in the future.
Underline the verbs in the sentences you have written.

Plurals

Singular means one. Plural means more than one.
We generally make a singular into a plural by adding s or es to the word.
For example: Last year I bought a rabbit from the pet shop. Now I have lots of rabbits.

Make the following words into plurals by adding $s$.
cat dog book house tree bag coat pen friend game pencil
Make the following words into plural by adding es.

| boss | kiss | pass | tax | box | fox |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |
| wish | ash | dish | witch | arch | watch |

Words that end in $y$.
When a word ends in $\mathbf{y}$, before we add es, we have to change the $\mathbf{y}$ to $\mathbf{i}$.
For example: fly becomes flies, cry becomes cries, try becomes tries.
Male the following words into plurals by adding es.

| spy | sky | baby | army | city |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |
| lady | copy | body | pony | story |

Words that end in f .
When a word ends in $f$, before we add es, we change the $\mathbf{f}$ to $\mathbf{v}$.
When a word ends in fe, we change the $f$ to $\mathbf{v}$ before adding $\mathbf{s}$.
For example: calf becomes calves, leaf becomes leaves, life becomes lives.
Make the following words into plurals by adding es or s.

| half | loaf | wolf | scarf | shelf |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |
| sheaf | hoof | thief | wife | knife |

Write a sentence for each of the words you have just made

Prefixes

A prefix is a group of letters that we add to the beginning of a word to make a new word.

For example: If we put un at the beginning of the word happy we get the word unhappy.

The word unhappy is the opposite of the word happy.
Add the prefix un to each of the following words:

| done | plug | able | told | willing |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |
| safe | wary | wanted | read | ripe |

Copy out and complete the following sentences using the words you have just made.

1. "Your shoe lace is $\qquad$ " said Mary to her brother.
2. "Don’t forget to $\qquad$ the television when you go to bed," said mum.
3. "I am afraid that I am $\qquad$ to attend parent's evening," she wrote.
4. The floods this autumn did $\qquad$ damage.
5. The boy was $\qquad$ to admit that he did it.
6. "It is $\qquad$ to skate on thin ice," said the policeman.
7. The $\qquad$ tourist is likely to get his pocket picked.
8. Please take any $\qquad$ books and games to the charity shop.
9. Many of the books in the school library remain $\qquad$
10.If you eat $\qquad$ apples you will get stomach ache.

Add the prefix un to each of the following words:

| fair | glued | just | kind | loved |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |
| lucky | tied | tidy | paid | sealed |

Write a sentence for each of the new words you have made.

Speech marks

Speech marks show someone is speaking. When we write down something somebody is saying we write everything the person says inside the speech marks.

For example: "Can I see your tickets, please?" said the guard.
Copy out the sentences below putting in the missing speech marks.

1. Where shall we go today? said Peter.
2. I'd like to go to the seaside, said Jane.
3. Where is the nearest seaside resort? asked David.
4. I think Blackpool is probably the nearest, said Helen.
5. Oh yeah. Blackpool's great. Let's go there, said Jane.
6. O.K. said Peter. We'll go to Blackpool for the day.
7. How will we get there? asked David.
8. We could get the train, said Helen.
9. The bus is cheaper, said Jane.
10.The train is quicker, though, said Peter.
11.O.K. We'll go by train then, said David.
12.I'm really looking forward to a day at the seaside, said Jane.

Remember that commas and question marks that are part of the words spoken also go inside the speech marks.

Write out the conversation between the four friends when they are on the train returning from their day at the seaside.

What did they do at the seaside? What did they see?
Remember to put any words spoken inside the speech marks.
Start a new line each time a different person speaks.

Apostrophes

An apostrophe goes in the place of a missing letter or letters. When we write informally we write the way people speak. In speech people often miss out letters in the words spoken.

For example: "I'd like a drink," said Nick.
In the sentence above I'd is short for I would.
The most common use of the apostrophe is to replace the $\mathbf{o}$ in the middle of not.
For example: is not is often shortened to isn't
Write the shortened form of each of the following:

| was not |  | have not |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
| did not | .................... | does not |
| should not | .................... | must not |
| do not | .................... | has not |

Write a sentence for each of the new words you have just made.

Copy out the following sentences.
Use an apostrophe to shorten the words underlined.

1. "I am not going to school today," said John.
2. "You are going to school," said his mother.
3. "We are on holiday this week," said John.
4. "I will ask Mrs Jones next door," said his mother.
5. "They have all gone out," said John.
6. "We will see about that," said his mother.
7. "They are all out," said John's father.
8. "Well, I have not had a letter about it," said his mother.
9. "It is too late to go now, anyway," said John.

Similes

When we compare one thing with another we call it a simile. Similes are often used in everyday speech.

For example: The cake was as light as a feather.
Choose the best word from the list below to complete each simile.

| brave | good | gentle | hard | sweet | heavy |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |
| poor | strong | proud | weak | cool | smooth |
